

23.05.2024

040014 DAĞISTAN

GASANOVA, Saida. Ethnic identity: peculiarities of interaction between family values and multi-ethnic student environment through the example of Dagestani students. Humanities & Social Sciences Communications, 8 (2021) pp. 276. Dagestani students in Moscow universities. Online article without page- numbering.

АБДУЛМАЖИДОВ, Р. С. & МАГОМЕДОВА, З. А. Обзор исследований дагестанских арабоязычных источников в постсоветский период. Vostok. Afro-Aziatskie Obshchestva: Istoriya i Sovremennost' / Восток: Afro-Азиатские Общества: История и Современность, 2021 v (2021) pp. 239-249. With reference to historical sources. Translated title: Review of studies on Arabic-language sources from Daghestan in the post-Soviet period Abstract(s): English.

LONGUET-MARX, Frédérique. Chroniques caucasiennes 1967-2019. Vulaine sur Seine: Croquant, 2022. 279 pp. "Témoignage d'une anthropologue ... au Daghestan."

SAHAKYAN, Naira. Muslim reformers and the Bolsheviks: the case of Daghestan. Abingdon & New York: Routledge, 2022 (Routledge Studies in the History of Russia and Eastern Europe, 39). 184 pp.

KALISZEWSKA, Iwona & SCHMIDT, Jagoda. 'Nobody will marry you if you don't have a pension'. Female bribing practices in Dagestan, North Caucasus. Caucasus Survey, 10 i (2022) pp. 1-24.

WIELECKI, Kamil M. Filling in the urban space: The "Port-Petrovsk" fishery and elemental urbanization in Makhachkala. Caucasus Survey, 10 i (2022) pp. 127-156. "... a large fishing and fish processing company in Makhachkala (Dagestan, Russia) that was purposefully driven to bankruptcy in 2007, leading some 5,300 people to lose their workplaces as well as access to many social services."

KLYACHKINA, Sasha. Perceptions of governance: state and non-state governance in the North Caucasus. Post-Soviet Affairs, 37 iv (2021) pp. 336-361. Examines how residents perceive governance in Chechnya, Dagestan, and Ingushetia.