

STOSCH, Klaus von. The Qur'ānic critique of apocalyptic ideas and a Christian response. A companion to comparative theology. Ed. Pim Valkenberg; with Marianne Moyaert ... [et al.]. Leiden: Brill, 2022, (Brill's Companions to Modern Theology, 2), pp. 212-229. "The chapter tries to show how influential apocalyptic ideas were in political theology in late antiquity and how much they shape political debates until today. Following Zishan Ghaffar's Qur'ān commentary, it argues that the Qur'ān criticizes the political use of apocalyptic ideas within imperial politics and presents an alternative of eschatological thinking without apocalyptic focus."
