2007 The Qur'an's reformation of Judaism and Christianity: return to the origins. Ed. Holger M. Zellentin. Abingdon & New York: Routledge, 2019 (Routledge Studies in the Qur'an). 358 pp. "This volume explores the relationship between the Qur'an and aspects of the Jewish and Christian tradition in the spirit of continuity and reform. ... Chapters focus on individual surahs and on intra-Qur'anic parallels, on the Qur'an's relationship to pre-Islamic Arabian culture, on its intertextuality and its literary intricacy, and on its legal and moral framework. It illustrates a move away from the problematic paradigm of cultural influence and instead emphasizes the Qur'an's attempt to reform the religious landscape of its time."
