3205 ROOHI, Ehsan. The murder of the Jewish chieftain Ka'b b. al-Ashraf: a re-examination. Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society, 31 i (2021) pp. 103-124.
"The murder of the Prophet's chief Jewish opponent, Ka'b b. al-Ashraf, led to grave consequences for the tribe of Banū al-Naḍir and for the Jews as a whole ... Despite the constructive study undertaken by previous scholars, there still seem to be some contradictory elements and vague accounts that have been either utterly ignored or for which a satisfactory explanation is lacking."
