Trade 'outside the law': Uzbek and Afghan transnational merchants between Yiwu and South-Central Asia. Central Asian Survey, 39 i (2020) pp. 135-154. Analyses the trajectories of two transnational networks present in the Chinese city of Yiwu: Afghan merchants who trade goods in and out Afghanistan, Tajikistan and Pakistan; and Uzbek traders (citizens of either Tajikistan or Uzbekistan) who commercialize their merchandise in and out Tajikistan, Uzbekistan and Russia.
